San Jose Police Officers' Association Meeting Notes

Membership Meeting

There were three items on the agenda for the Breakfast Meeting.

PRESIDENT JIM UNLAND OPENED BY GIVING A bargaining/legal update. We have 9 negotiation dates set between now and April. We already have dates set for arbitration and our second tier and our contract should we not come to any agreements. The current academy will be in tier one however the next academy group will be placed into tier two. Their benefit will be 65% at sixty years old. This is the worst benefit that we are aware of in our comparable universe. The city has eleven million dollars to distribute as raises for the entire city. To put that into comparison, to reinstate pay reductions for the police department alone is “President Unland advised that the city has released their five-year budget forecast. With that completed we believe the city will now be preparing their preliminary contract proposal. A preliminary review of the five year forecast show pension contributions for the city rising fifty million dollars over the next five years. Those contributions will take away from any raise increases we may expect to see.”

over twenty million dollars. Our trial for Measure B is set to begin in June. We anticipate that the city will attempt to move forward and try to begin the 4% additional pension contributions. We will attempt to have those stopped before the city can implement. The firefighters have filed for a preliminary injunction and we will be waiting to see how that plays out.
